

Now Accepting Applications for Auburn Enlarged City School District's NEW 3-Year-Old Universal Pre-Kindergarten Program!

The Universal Pre-Kindergarten Program, taught by state-certified early childhood education teachers, is an integral component of our District, which historically, has been offered to our 4-year-old learners. We are now excited to announce the addition of a NEW 3-Year-Old UPK Program (3PK), with classes beginning on January 23, 2017! This program will offer comprehensive educational services to Auburn Residents who are 3-years-old on or before December 1, 2016, and will be available at no cost for eligible children.

Both full and half-day programs will be available at the sites listed below. Parents/Guardians are welcome and encouraged to visit any of these participating sites before completing your application. Kindly contact the site to arrange a visit.
